CANADA NOW FIGHTS CONFERMENT OF TITLES

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.) Ottawa, Ont.—Democracy has permeated Canada and a strong movement, backed by returned soldiers, has been launched against the granting or honoring of titles in the Dominion.

Such a bill is now before parliament and is believed to have the backing of a majority.

This movement is due to the continued evidence that politics is being played to get titles and that rich profiteers make large donations to worthy movements for the sole purpose of obtaining a title.

It is charged titles are obtained by the purchase of the influence of party leaders, who, in turn, use their best offices with the king to gain titles for their clients.

A title is an empty honor in Canada and carries no privileges. Most of those who gain one immediately leave for England to claim a seat in the house of lords.

Throughout Canada social equality now prevails. You'll see no limousines. The elite would not dare to use footmen or livermen. Except where there are only women in the family, all chauffeurs have been released for war work. Only the wife of the premier in Canadian provinces uses footmen. Majors, colonels and captains may be seen cranking up and driving their own flivvers.

CANADIANS CAPTURE VILLAGE PARVILLERS

Smart Operation Straightens Line—Eleven Fresh Enemy Divisions Engaged.

With the Canadian Forces in France, Aug. 15.—(By the Canadian Press.)—The Canadians captured the village of Parvillers today in a smart operation which enabled them to straighten out their line in that sector of the front. A number of machine guns and prisoners were taken.

The latest report was that our troops were holding the village. Reinforcements went there in support against the strong post the enemy had in the vicinity.

Enemy artillery activity indicates a stiffening of resistance.

Hostile aircraft have been considerably strengthened on the whole of this Amiens-Montdidier front.

Thirty-four enemy divisions have been engaged, including eleven fresh divisions and two tired divisions from the enemy reserve. The enemy has used up every battalion of two of the four divisions holding his line in front of the Canadians. These are the Seventy-ninth and the 118th.

STRIKE AT COLUMBUS SQUELCHED BY MILITARY

Territory Surrounding Swift Spinning Mill Declared a Restricted District.

Columbus, Ga., Aug. 15.—The situation here resulting from a strike of employees at the Swift Spinning mills was quiet last night, following the arrival of two companies of troops from Camp Gordon, at Atlanta. The military authorities immediately declared the area surrounding the mill where the strike began a restricted district, and orders were issued that no one should be allowed on the streets between 8 p.m. and 5 a.m.

Mill owners late yesterday, in an effort to prevent further walkouts, took out an injunction in superior court enjoining Textile Organizer J. A. Thomas and his assistants from further work among the employees. A request was made upon Gov. Dorsey to have the troops withdrawn. At a mass meeting of citizens, it was declared that the situation here did not demand the presence of troops and the governor was urged to have them returned to Camp Gordon.

The troops were sent here following encounters between deputy sheriffs and strikers, during which the deputies were disarmed and sent away from the scene of the strike.

Approximately 500 mill employees are on strike as a result of failure by mill owners to recognize a recently organized textile workers' union. In addition to the mill operatives, street railway employees are also on a strike here.

The military came to Columbus at the request of Sheriff J. A. Beard, of Muscogee county, as follows: "Gov. Hugh Dorsey, Atlanta, Ga.: 'On account of rioting on the part of factory strikers, I am unable to handle the situation, as I have not enough deputies. I ask you to give me the assistance of home guards and thus prevent bloodshed which may otherwise occur.' J. A. BEARD, Sheriff."

FRENCH PRESS REJOICES OVER SEPARATE U. S. ARMY

(Copyright, 1918; New York World.) Paris.—The French press generally regards the formation of an autonomous American army the most important sign of the progress of American effort. Maurice Barres, writing in the Echo de Paris, says:

"Never could we have imagined last winter that our new allies would come in such numbers. Now, should we have dared to admit that despite their inexperience, they could give proof of such valor or obtain such success."

Gustave Herve, in La Victoire, writes: "The American army is an army all their own. If they bring to the preparation and conduct of their offensives the spirit of their great, audacious, enterprising, industrial leaders who are the enemies of petty economy, we shall soon have more surprises." Aime Roche, in L'Homme Libre, comments as follows:

"Let us hail this first army formed under the auspices of President Wilson. Let us hail it joyfully, for the stars of its standard symbolize victory."

In La Republique Francaise, Georges Bonnetous writes:

"The constitution of Gen. Pershing's autonomous army may be chalked up with a black mark by detested Germany."

"WAR CRAZE" OF AMERICA BEMOANED BY VON HINTZE

Amsterdam, Aug. 15.—Commenting on the recent interview given by Admiral Von Hintze, the German foreign secretary in which he laid responsibility for continuation of the war upon the entente the Frankfort Gazette says:

"We must continue the hard and bitter struggle for the defense of the fatherland, for our enemies show little inclination for peace, and neither Lloyd George nor Clemenceau is any readier for an understanding to be expected."

"The daily increasing influence of America upon the entente is of still greater importance. Any sign of desire for an understanding on the part of the European allies is counterbalanced by the war craze of the United States. In such circumstances there is nothing to be done but to repress all premature hopes and arm ourselves with courage and perseverance for the next developments."

Mrs. Klein Recommends Chamberlain's Liniment

I have also recommended it to my neighbors and friends who have used it successfully," writes Mrs. N. M. Klein, Chillicothe, Mo. (Adv.)
